Certified instructors for NSC, AHA and INDHS courses

Do you want to improve your response to emergency situations? Do you want to better support a victim until advanced care EMS arrive?

NurseMed is proud to offer a DUAL Certification First Responder course in January '08. Course completion allows you to test for the State of Indiana First Responder Certification. In addition each student successfully completing this course will receive certification as a First Responder from the National Safety Council.

Class enrollment is limited to thirty (30), so early registration is encouraged. Enrollment will close January 11, 2008. This course will be held at the Lee's Inn & Suites Conference Center in Plainfield, IN conveniently located just off of Interstate 70 @ the Plainfield exit.

This accelerated course will meet the four class days listed above and begin promptly at 07:00. Class will end no later than 19:00 daily. Skills practicum and written test will be conducted the last day of class.
